Fined $4900, Also Sentenced to 49 Months for Selling Liquor.

St. John, Kan .- Charles Steinbrink, who was convicted on fortynine accounts of selling whiskey in violation of the prohibitory law. was fined $4900 and sentenced to forty-nine months in jail. As he cannot pay his fine he will, under the law, have to serve it out in jail at the rate of fifty cents a day, making his total sentence practically thirty years and nine months.

The probability is, however, that after a year or so the county will tire of feeding him, and the county commissioners will release him.

A Congress of Negroes.

Huntsville, Ala, October 25 .-Eight hundred negroes from all parts of Alabama and Tennessee are holding their eighth annual Congress at the Agricultural and Mechanical College for negroes. Not only as the negro himself brought before the Congress, but his work is as well and exhibits of farm products are a feature.

President W. H. Councill called the Congress to order this morning and delivered his annual address, Thousands Have Kidney Trouble in which he said:

"As our footsteps diverge from political walks they approach industrial success and true citizenship. The negro will grow strong and will grow into usefulness in proportion to his contribution to industrial development and not political strife. The negro is seen at his best in the South. Here his labors are rewarded as nowhere else. Here his industrial efforts are cherished and helped. These happy conditions will be enlarged as long as the white and black man will each develop in his own sphere. Any attempt to unrace ourselves will wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant prove fatal.
